List 5 Key Take-Aways from the Seminar

- Different Interests Matter, Henry showed that having interests in different subjects, like Physics and Computer Science, can help you find various job options in graphics and animation.
- Try Internships, Henry did internships at NASA and Fermi-lab while studying. This is a good way to get real work experience and meet people in the industry.
- More School Can Help, Henry got a Master's degree in Physics. This shows that getting more education can make you more qualified for better jobs.
- Get Better at Your Job, Henry worked on movies that won big awards. If you become really good at your job, you can do exciting projects and get recognized for your work.
- Be Ready for Changes, Henry worked on a movie from home during the COVID-19 pandemic. This means you need to be flexible and ready to work in different ways sometimes.
